

"BY"

By tomorrow morning	by noon tomorrow
By now	by and by = before long
By far	by this time
By all means	by the time
By the means of	by the time of
By a narrow margin	by the back door
By airmail	by the way
By bus, train etc.
By the honor of
By the power of
Bit by bit
Two by two
Days go by
Day by day
She makes her dresses by hand
The room is 25 feet long by 15 feet wide
I finished my work by about five o'clock
Sit down by me
It is by the post office
You can have it by the ounce or in a tin
We came to Oxford by way of Banbury
These goods are sold by weight
He is older than I am by ten years - (cu)
I mention this by way of illustration
When you play games you have rules to play by
By chasing a ball of yarn - alergând după
A statement by Mr. John
An attack by guerillas
Announcement by ...	