

"FROM"

He drew the sky from memory
The flag is flying from the pole
He is weak from hunger
We get wood from trees
From now on
Plants grow from seeds
The boy from Italy
He comes from Italy
We receive a letter from John every week
How nice to hear from you
She is tired from jumping rope
The sheet keeps the blankets from touching me
The chimney lets the smoke out from the fire
A giraffe feeds from leaves high up on the trees
We shoveled the snow from the sidewalk
Vacation is the time when people rest from working
The grass is wet from the rain
He wants to stop the snow from coming in
The oil keeps the car from squeaking
He is keeping them from getting wet
He was panting so hard from running
He grabbed the gate to keep from falling
The arms were tired from holding the fishing pole
They backed away from him
They died from drinking too much
